HOUSING & SUPPORT

IN-HOUSE HOUSING LOCATION ASSISTANCE

Helping You Find a Place to Call Home

United Living Services helps individuals and families explore housing options that support safety, independence, belonging, and personal growth. Our caring team is here to guide you every step of the way.

A home that fits your needs and goals.

From supported living to group homes, we help connect people with welcoming residential environments where they can build life skills and thrive.

Personalized housing support for every journey

Finding the right home can feel overwhelming. Our In-House Housing Location Assistance team listens first, then helps identify residential options that align with each person's preferences, support needs, and goals.

- Individualized guidance for individuals and families
- Support exploring available residential options
- Clear communication throughout the search process
- A compassionate team focused on dignity and belonging

How our housing location team can help

We make the housing search more manageable by providing practical, person-centered support from the first conversation through move-in planning.

01 — DISCOVER

Understand Your Needs

We take time to learn about preferred location, accessibility, daily support needs, lifestyle, and personal goals.

02 — EXPLORE

Locate Housing Options

Our team helps individuals and families explore available supported living, group home, and residential opportunities.

03 — PLAN

Prepare for a Successful Move

We help coordinate next steps, answer questions, and support a smooth transition into a welcoming home environment.

Our simple, supportive process

Every person's housing journey is unique. We provide guidance that respects individual choices and keeps families informed.
